Dedication

Mr. Vincent Disessa

Mr. Vincent Disessa, who is celebrating fifty years of service to Weymouth High School, embodies the qualities that Weymouth High graduates should possess. His extraordinary achievements in life have far surpassed those of a typical high school teacher. For the warm smiles with which he greets his students every day and his commitment to this school and the students, we dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Disessa.

Born and raised in Everett, he graduated from Everett High School and then served his country in its largest military operation, WWII. He was stationed in the Pacific with the U.S. Army Ordnance, Infantry Division. There he fought on the Pacific Islands, retaking land from the Japanese Empire in order to secure America's success in the war. It was his experience in the war that compelled him to become a teacher.

During the war, he had to lead a group of soldiers in fixing a tank. Because all the soldiers on that assignment were illiterate, he had to instruct them orally while working from a complicated manual. After completing the repair, he felt great pride in his men's accomplishment and decided that teaching was the career for him.

After the war, he went to Fitchburg State Teachers' College and received his Bachelor of Science degree in Education. Later, he continued his education at Northeastern University where he received his Master's degree in Education.

In 1955, he became an Industrial Arts teacher at Weymouth Vocational Technical High School. For thirty five years, he continued to teach and inspire the students of Weymouth. In 1990, Mr. Disessa retired from regular teaching but started substituting full time the next school year.

In Mr. Disessa's spare time he loves to spend time with his 1931 Chevrolet. He participates in car shows, parades, displays for Chevrolet dealers and antique car club functions. Mr. Disessa and his wife enjoy square dancing, round dancing, and ballroom dancing. He also loves to do yard work and fix things in his home. Mr. Disessa also has three grown children.

For fifty years of unparalleled service and dedication to the students of Weymouth, the class of 2005 gratefully dedicates this yearbook to Mr. Vincent Disessa. We wish him many more years of happiness and prosperity.

Dear Class of 2005,

I want to thank all of you for four great years at Weymouth High. I sincerely hope that in the years to come you look back on the good times at WHS and think of them as some of the best years of your life. The second hope I have for all of you is that your years at Weymouth High are just the beginning of the many incredible memories that you will experience in your successful and happy lives. A piece of advice I will leave with you is, when times get tough, push it, push it good; push it, push it real good.

Your Senior Class President,
Brendan Carey

This year the Weymouth High School Marching Band had one of its best seasons ever. They competed in four New England Scholastic Band Association competitions, including finals held in Quincy. The band's first competition took place in Everett and they placed third out of five, with a score of 76.8. They placed third again, with a score of 83.4, at the competition in Dedham. In East Bridgewater they placed sixth with a score of 83. On November 6th, Weymouth traveled to Quincy for the NESBA finals. They had an amazing night and for the first time, they broke 90 and won third place with a score of 91.8. The Wildcat Marching Band performed in other places to the NESBA competitions. On October 2nd, they hosted a festival for bands from all around Massachusetts. They also played at festivals in Plymouth and Barnstable. In addition, the band marched in many parades during the season, including the Roslindale Parade, Weymouth Veterans' Day Parade, and they played at Weymouth's Christmas tree lighting. At the Quincy Christmas parade, Weymouth came in in first place, winning all the caption awards, including best music, best color guard, best percussion, and best drum majors. The band also played in the stands for the Weymouth Wildcats home football games and for the halftime shows.

The Weymouth High School Concert Choir, directed by Ellen Brown, has come a long way this year. They undertook especially difficult pieces of music and participated in various concerts, including Celebrating Music in Weymouth (November) with the Southeast Philharmonic Orchestra. They added their talent to Mayor Madden's Alumni Holiday Show on the Weymouth Channel, and thry performed at the annual Christmas (December)concert. The Valentine's concert in February was a hit. Not only did the whole choir perform, but individual choir members performed solos for the audience. In April and May, a community concert and the annual pops concert were put on. The Jazz Choir and Select Choir performed at most of these concerts too. The group also went into Boston in May to view the musical, "The Phantom of the Opera." Finally, the senior members of the Concert Choir will perform at the graduation ceremony in June.

At the beginning of the 2004-2005 school year, Weymouth's finest drama students put on the annual Senior Class play. This year, the show was "Bye, Bye Birdie," the story of rock star Conrad Birdie and his influence on the small town of Sweet Apple, Ohio, before he goes into the army. The cast and crew spent weeks preparing for three amazing performances from November 19th to November 21st. All three audiences enjoyed shows filled with music and laughter. The cast members demonstrated talent and enthusiasm during each performance, and the crew pulled each show together with constant calm and order behind the scenes. The incredible cast was led by the following seniors: Andrew Sheflin, Annie Northridge, Andrew Keegan, Elizabeth Mongrello, Amanda Szymczuk, Amy Cromer, Joanna MacIntyre, and Kathleen Cashman. Seniors in the crew included Jay McKenna, Cassie Burke, Jill Casey, Christine Wentzell, Nick Higgins, and Katrina Thorne.

This year the students in Concert Band have had much success, especially at the Winter Concert and at the ever-popular Christmas Festival. At the Winter Concert, the students mastered exceptionally difficult pieces of music, such as Russian Christmas music. Additionally, they participated in the Ralph Talbot Flag Commemoration Ceremony. The stamina and skill developed by the students this year enhanced their performances at their Chamber Concert on March 10th, and their Spring Concert on May 12th.

Academic Decathlon

The Academic Decathlon Team members kept up their standard of excellence by finishing second in the preliminary competition out of over 50 schools statewide. They will compete in the state finals in March. Many of the starters won individual medals. The starters were Chris Lewis, Paul Belmonte, Lauren Spink, Joe McCarthy, Emily Picciotto, Greg NgPack, Kathryn Rascoe, Jessica Gatto, Steve Lindsay, Maria Georges, Julia Muller.

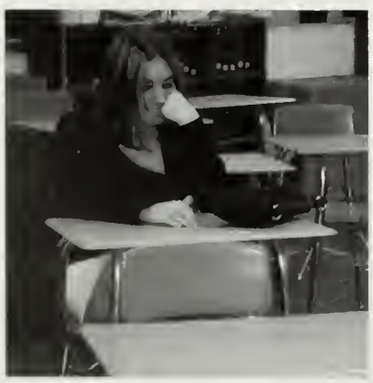
Amnesty International



Amnesty International is an international organization that works toward solving numerous human rights problems around the globe. This is the second year the club has been functioning at Weymouth High School. The Weymouth High School chapter has written letters to free wrongly imprisoned men and women and signed numerous petitions against the use of torture, capital punishment, and other violations of the Universal Human Rights Declaration. Our most recent project is to ask Prsident Bush to sign a treaty to ban the use of land mines in war.

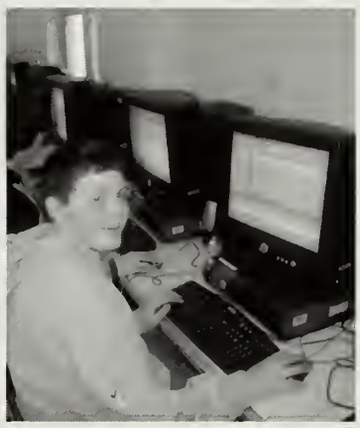
Computer Team



The Weymouth High Computer Team competes in the American Computer Science Leage(ACSL). About 20 students take part in the competition each year, and this is the first year it is open to ninth graders. Students take part in four in-school competitions each year. Participation in these contests gives students the opportunity to study computer topics that are not covered in the curriculum.

The contests are held during the first week of December, February, March and April. Program specifications for the contests and tests for each contest are sent to the school, and results are sent back to ACSL after each contest. For each contest, students must individually write a program to perform as specified by the ACSL, and must take a test on computer-related topics, such as Boolean algebra, digital electronics, LISP, or computer number systems.

After the fourth contest, schools that are among the top 15 in the nation in their division are invited to an All-Star contest. Weymouth has been invited to the contest for the past eight years. Paticipation in these contests has given students the opportunity to meet students from all over this country and from other countries, as well. Students have traveled to Utah, North Carolina, Texas, Florida, Washington D.C., California, Montreal, and Chicago to take part.

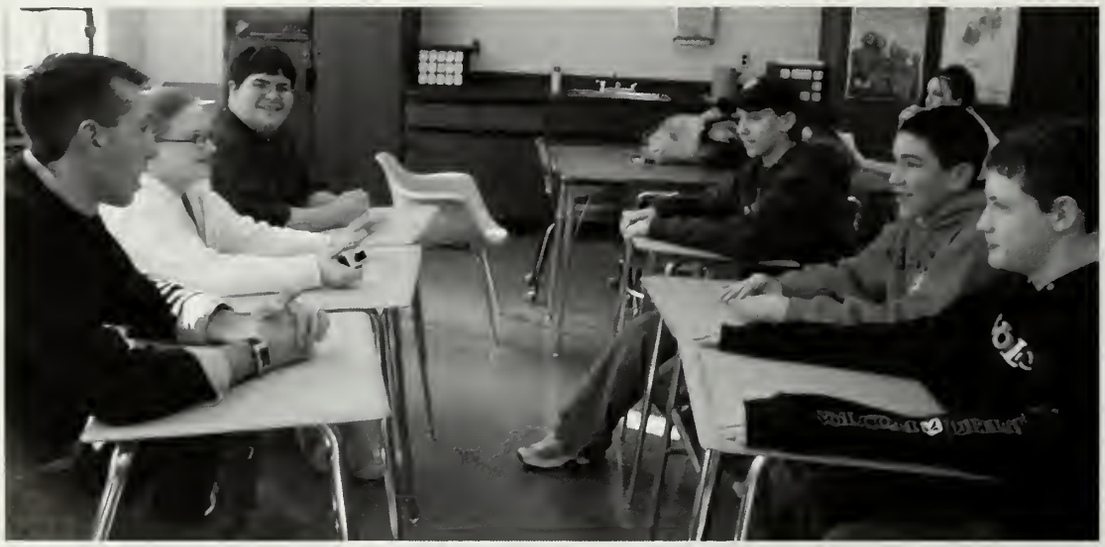
Debate Team



Students on the Debate Team learn to analyze a problem, conduct research, and present the most effective case for or against a given proposition. These experiences provide invaluable training in critical thinking, quick responses, defending worthy ideas and attacking invalid ideas. Participation on the Debate Team teaches students to tolerate other points of view, while determining their own. This year the team picked a different topic each month and practiced competition within the team.

FCCLA

FCCLA is a national organization for students interested in Family, Career, and Community projects. With both state and local chapters, it is an integral part of Family and Consumer Sciences Education. Student members take on leadership roles for designing projects and the implementation of each chapter's activities. Chapter events may focus on a charity, community, or fund-raising event.

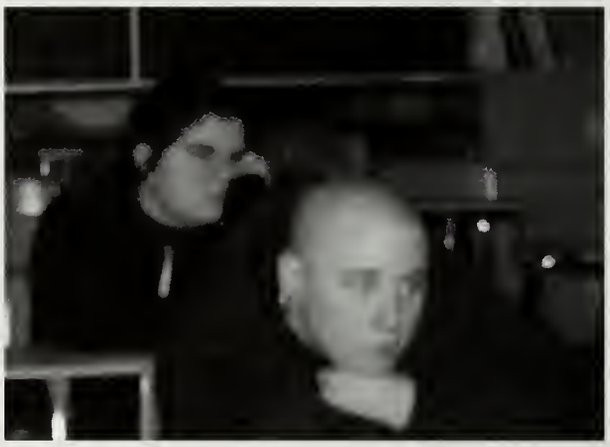
Film Club



Only occasionally deterred by snow, sleet or freezing rain, the 2004-2005 Film Club met many times despite a brutal winter. This small but committed group of rabid cinophiles met to view and discuss such diverse films as the Mexican film "Amores Perros," Jim Jarmusch's acid western "Dead Man," the unconventional Holocaust film, "Nowhere in Africa," and John Cassavetes' raw and unnerving "A Woman Under the Influence." After a screening of a classic, cutting-edge, or foreign film, the members would eagerly dissect the cinematic and thematic techniques that had mesmerized them for the past few hours. Under the stewardship of passionate instructors Mr. Pappas and Mr. Porro, the members of the film club learned to expand and apply their knowledge of film and analysis to other aspects of their lives as they watched arresting images that they would remember for a lifetime.

Girls' Club

In its first year, the Girls' Club was advised by Mrs. Jessica Johnston, Ms. Allyson Bell, Ms. Karen Bonner, and Ms. Leigh McConnell. When female students began turning to these teachers for advice before and after class, the teachers decided that girls should be a place to go for confidential advice on everything from what prom dress to buy, to what to do when someone is fighting with her boyfriend. The club's activities have included enjoyable activities such as the field trip to see "Bridget Jones Diary" as well as serious discussions about the issues girls everywhere face on a daily basis.

This was the first year for the Weymouth High School Hiking Club. The club is a year-round opportunity for students and faculty to get some fresh air and exercise while learning to appreciate the environment and take advantage of the natural resources that exist in this area. The hikes ranged from relatively-short after-school walks on local trails, to day-long trips covering more challenging terrain. Other activities organized by the club included snowshoeing, rock climbing, and participating in fund-raising walks. No prior experience is required and the club is open to all students and faculty.

The Ski Club, in its endless quest for the "perfect run," ventured to Bromley Mountain in Vermont on January 22, 2005. The six-hour return trip was made in what would become known as "The Blizzard of 2005."

The first trip was such a success that the club went on a weekend trip to Smuggler's Notch, Vermont. The Ski Club gives students the opportunity to experience skiing and snowboarding with the wind in their faces while being one with nature.

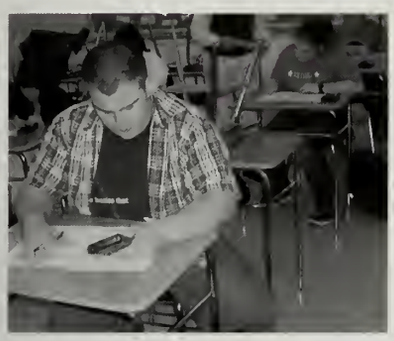
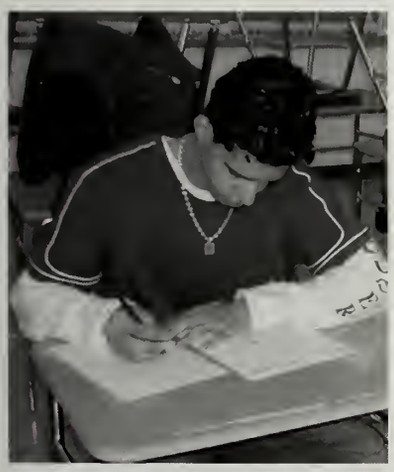
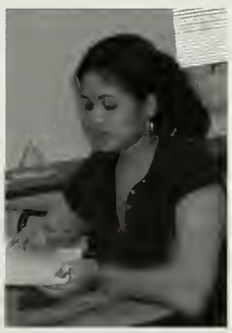
Math Team







The Weymouth High School Mathematics Team is one of five South Shore teams in Division Three of the Southeastern Massachusetts Mathematics League. The league consists of twenty-eight high schools in eastern Massachusetts. Throughout the school year, four competitions are held in the SMML and six in the New England Math League. SAT-approved calculators are allowed during the tests. The team comprises over twenty students, but only ten students can compete at any one competition in the SMML. All team members may take the tests for practice. In the N.E. Math League all members may participate.

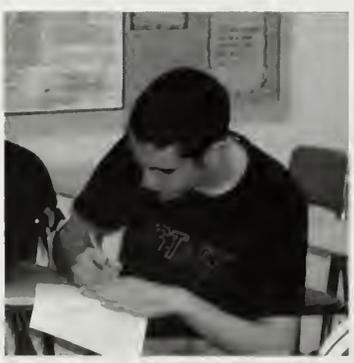
National History Day



This was a banner year for the National History Day Competition. The given theme for this year was "Communication in History." This comprehensive project started in September and ended in March at the competition at Bridgewater State College. All the students produced a tremendous amount of work in the span of seven months. Most of the competitors created exhibits, with several students participating in the media division.

The following students competed this year: Mina Sarin, Mona Sarin, Stephanie Sheppard, Charissa Zapata, Kelsi Brandolini, Cassandra Carlson, Valerie Maloof, Lauren McGrath, Erica Mills, Joseph Ruvido, Megan Shanahan, Karen Woelfle, Katlynn Rourke, and Jessica Ducey.

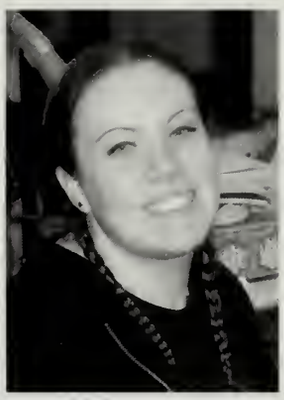
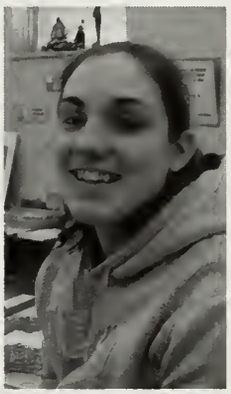
National Honor Society





President: Emily Picciotto
Vice President: Christopher Lewis

The National Honor Society recognizes students for their academic achievement, and and requires that they provide service to the community. Advised by Mr. and Mrs. Mosca, the Honor Society collects money for UNICEF and the Weymouth Food Pantry, holds an annual blood drive for the Red Cross, and supports many other causes. All members are required to complete 20 hours of community service by April of their senior year. Some services provided include tutoring, volunteering at homeless shelters, and sending packages to soldiers overseas.

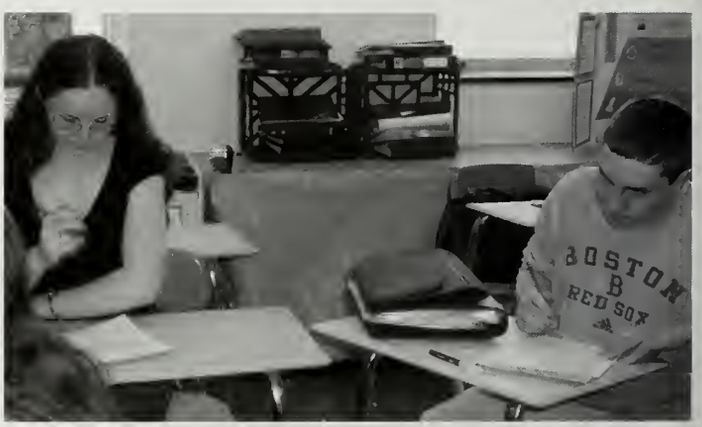
The Wildcat



"The Wildcat" is Weymouth High School's official newspaper. Its job is to keep the school community informed and talking about the issues that affect them. The staff takes great pride in producing such a professional publication. Students in this club develop the stories, conduct the research, and obtain the interviews they need. They even procure the advertising that allows the paper to fund itself. After gathering the news, they then lay out the paper and, with the help of the Graphic Arts Department, get it printed. The paper is then distributed to the readers, in whose hands it truly belongs. Special recognition belongs to the co-editors, Michelle Frawley and Alex Palmisano, for the hard work and dedication they demonstrated in making the newspaper a great success this year.

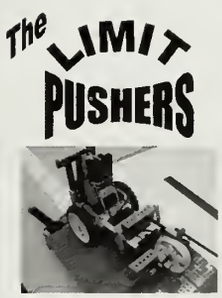
The Robotics Team



The Weymouth High School Robotics Club is made up of students who compete in various tournaments across the state. Each member has a specific role to fill as the group works to create, design, build, and problem solve during the construction of a robot and an attachment and the subsequent accomplishment of a stated mission.

At the Blackstone Valley Competition on November 20, 2004, the club was awarded the Judges' Award for Best Effort. At the Eastern State Tournament on December 4, 2004, the WHS team ranked fifth in the morning session and advanced to the afternoon session. Despite missing the next advancement, the team impressed the technical judges with their complex programming and engineering proficiency and won the first place Programming Award. All in all, the team had a great season marked by strong support from their families.

Rotary Interact

Rotary Interact is a year-round community service organization which contributes to the local community by serving lunch at Fr. Bill's in Quincy, playing BINGO with the elderly at the Weymouth Health Center, registering children in the Child Identification Program(CHiPS),and delivering lunches to Weymouth Senior Citizens through the Meals-on-Wheels Program. As a part of the national component of Rotary Interact, we will serve our nation by going to Chavies, Kentucky, to help a low-income family repair their home and build a ramp for access by a disabled person. We also plan to visit the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in Cleveland, and the National Underground Railroad Freedom Museum in Cincinnati during April school vacation. Through Rotary Interact's international component, we will raise funds for polio vaccines to be given in India. In addition, we plan to go to a Third World county(Dominican Republic or India)during the February vacation of 2006 for an international service project.

SADD

SADD (Students Against)estructive Decisions) is a program for tudents from all grade levels who vant to become more actively involved n the school and the community. The ctivities this year included two ssemblies, "Backstage Pass" and Eric's Story", the Click it or Ticket Campaign for the Governor's Highway Safety Bureau, and the mock car crash rior to the Senior Prom. Advised by Mrs. Boczanowski, SADD hopes to nake both students at WHS and the ommunity at large more aware of the onsequences of making destructive lecisions.

Senior Committee

Senior Committee is made up of seniors who meet weekly to determine important senior issues. Topics such as the senior prom, class fundraisers, the senior cruise, class scholarships, and class gift are discussed. The members of senior committee want to make sure everyone has an enjoyable and memorable senior year.

Peer Mediation

This year the Weymouth High School Peer Mediators continued with their efforts to spread the word about mediation and helping others. In the fall, the mediators trained students in the middle schools in conflict resolution. Some of the members later attended a training held by the Norfolk County District Attorney's office to help in maintaining a safe school environment. 2004-2005 was another sucessful year for the mediators in helping WHS students solve their problems.

Student Senate

Advisors: Ms. Leigh McConnell and Ms. Vanessa Wade

The Student Senate is made up of students who act as the voice of the entire student body. Questions, concerns, and suggestions regarding the running of the school are presented at weekly meetings. The officers then relay this information to the administrators and work together with them to come up with programs and activities to improve the atmosphere at the school. The Student Senate also promotes school spirit by sponsoring various activities, including the Halloween costume contest, spirit week, and the Spring Fling dance.

Skills USA

Again this year, students from the Career and Technology programs at Weymouth High School continued a winning tradition by bringing back five medals from competition at Skills USA.

At the district level, a team of thirty-five Weymouth students competed against five hundred students from area schools in nine different trade areas for gold, silver and bronze medals and the right to continue on to state-wide competition.

This year's winners were Tim Wall, a silver medalist in Automotive Technology; Katerina Mavromatis, a silver medalist Cosmetology; Cassandra Corey, a bronze medalist in Cosmetology; Erin Slyman, a bronze medalist in Graphic Design and Heather Sewell, a bronze medalist in Pre-school Teaching Assistant.

These students will contend with 1500 students from across Massachusetts for the right to compete at the national level this summer.

Yearbook

Editor: Joanna Watanabe

Kathy and Ray brainstorm.

The 2005 yearbook, "Born To Be Wildcats," was produced by both the Yearbook Production class and volunteers after school. Together, these students captured the faces of, and places important to, the Class of 2005. Included in the book are sports, clubs and activities, and dances that the students took part in over the course of the year, as well as portraits of both the seniors and underclassmen.

Along with Ms. Jacqueline Deane and Mrs. Anne Bliven, the staff spent countless hours and worked diligently to produce this year's yearbook. In order to complete their pages by the deadlines, students had to contact faculty, coaches, club officers, parents and students for information, and they had to take numerous photographs. The yearbook team of 2005 worked together to create a memorable yearbook that they hope all will enjoy.

The staff collaborates to design a page.

Tomorrow's Teachers

The goal of Tomorrow's Teachers is to foster and encourage among students an interest in a career in education. This year, the club was involved in many exciting activities intended to ready the students for teaching careers. Among these activities were writing and presenting lesson plans, attending and presenting at the State Seminar, and shadowing a teacher of their choice. This year's placements at Chapman and Adams Middle Schools, Talbot Primary School, and the high school were in subjects ranging from art to English to physical education. Several of the students made connections with children in the classrooms of the teachers they shadowed, leading to tutoring and mentoring projects.

Literary Magazine

The Literary Magazine is a collection of poetry, short stories, photography, and other artwork created by the students of Weymouth High School. Students from all grades and all academic abilities are encouraged to submit their work so that the magazine truly reflects the entire school community. Staff members gather weekly to read submissions, share ideas, and determine what will be published in the magazine. Next, they meet to pair photographs with poems that share similar imagery. Each year, the staff organizes a Read-A-Thon to promote the magazine and to raise funds to cover publishing costs. This creative and collaborative project culminates with a "coffeehouse" release party where featured poets read their work aloud and photography is on display.

This was an unusual season,incomparable to those of the recent past. The first thought to cross most people's minds will be the margin of difference in our wins to losses, with a final 0-11 record. But those who actually played on this team and who have dedicated their summers and falls to playing football for Weymouth High can attest to the passion we played with and the passion instilled in us by our coaches.

This season was also the end of an era, one in which a fine Weymouth program was anchored by Coach Ross Tortora. Everyone who truly cares about the program and possesses the knowledge of Coach Tortora's sincere love for both the players and the game recognizes that his love of football inspires every player on the team. On their behalf, and on behalf of all those with any affiliation with Weymouth High School football, I give applause, thanks, and best wishes to Coach Tortora.

The most prominent aspect of the 2004 football season was that the team was a vivid reflection of what the enduring values of interscholastic athletics are meant to be. Due in no small measure to the strong, positive-minded leadership of the senior members of the squad, the team practiced and played with enthusiasm and maintained a commitment to fundamental values: playing within the rules, good sportsmanship, team work, and the daily pursuit of excellence.

If coming together is a beginning, and keeping together is progress, then working together is the embodiment of success. In every instance, the members of this season's Weymouth High School Football Team represented themselves, their families, and the extended W.H.S. community in a fashion that brought great pride to all associated with the team. Although President Calvin Coolidge wrote these words about the American character in general, they can be used in reference to the defining attitude of the 2004 W.H.S. Football Team: "...nothing in the world can take the place of persistence. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent."

Coach Tortora gives advice to Bruce.

With 17 seniors graduating the previous season, the Boys' Soccer Team had only seven returning varsity players. Despite the small number of experienced players, the veterans and the first-year players worked together to continue Weymouth's string of successful seasons. The team started with a win and remained undefeated until the sixteenth game of the regular season.

They then moved into the post season, where they defeated Taunton 3-1 and got past Marshfield 2-1, finishing the last game for the seniors on the new field with a tournament victory. After reaching the South Sectional Semi-finals for an unprecedented thirteenth straight season, the team played well against B.C. High but were unable to score, losing 2-0. Next year's team hopes to make it to the tournament again due to the strong core of underclassmen who were essential to the 2004 team's success.

The Seniors

The Girls' Soccer Team was able to achieve co-championship status in the Carey Division of the Bay State League, the strongest league in the state. Once the 2004 tournament began, the team was able to eliminate three opponents and then advance to the South Sectional Finals. Overall, the team finished with a record of 15-4-3.

This past season would not have been as successful without the superb play and leadership of the team's seniors. All- American Catie Whelan scored a career high of 29 goals. Kathleen Kennerley was voted All- Conference and also made the Eastern Mass. All-star Team. Joining Kathleen as defensive backs were Katie Frado, Kendall Carlson, and Jacki Peruzzi. Powerful senior forwards, Jess Peruzzi, Ashley Losi, and Alyce Jordan, contributed greatly to the team's success. All the girls are to be congratulated for their excellent season.

The Boys' Cross Country Team completed a successful season in the Bay State Conference this fall, finishing with an 8-3 record. Despite losing six of their top eight runners from the year before, the boys defeated conference rivals Walpole, Natick, and Needham, thanks to leadership from captains Chris Lewis and John Connolly. Incredible strides were made by senior Jimmy Mwangi, juniors Joe Ruvido, Ryan Peterson, and Sean Coleran, and sophomores Craig Myers and Mark Jordan. With most of their top runners returning, Weymouth is a favorite to win the Bay State League next fall.

The Girls' Cross Country Team exceeded many expectations with an impressive 10-2 record, going 9-2 in the Bay State League and placing second in their division. After a tough 2-2 start, the girls came into their own and won their last eight meets, including difficult ones on the road against Wapole, Brookline, Natick, and Brockton. At the state meet, competing in Class A, the toughest division, the girls tied for seventh place, despite a heavy snowfall that slowed the course.

Junior captains, Becca MacDonald and Kerry Hanson, led the team throughout the season with their experience and support. The girls' entire top ten: Marisa Pardo, Sam Sacchetti, Kristen Mahoney, Sarah Geden, Felicia Catarella, Rachel McCabe, Jill Fitzgerald, and league all-stars Becca MacDonald and Nicole Pearce, make the girls a favorite to win the Bay State Conference and make it all the way to the state championship meet next November.

Captains Kendall Carlson and Kathleen Kennerley pose with Coach Shoff.

The Wildcats started the season off with a victory at Milton after a very encouraging preseason. They followed the win with losses to Needham and Whitman-Hanson. Following these two losses, they bounced back with three wins before falling to Framingham on the road. The team won a total of 10 games and lost eight. They qualified for the MIAA tournament where they were seeded thirteenth and faced Dartmouth, the team they had lost to in the semifinals of the South Sectional MIAA tournament last year. They also realized their eight losses this year had come from the top five ranked teams in the MIAA tourney. They were excited about drawing a team they had not faced in the Bay State League, the toughest in the state. The Wildcats traveled to Dartmouth and after a hard fought first half, they trailed 23-22 and had high hopes for the second half. Unfortunately, fourth-seeded Dartmouth won the game 53-41.

All season long, the Wildcats played with pride and class and are proud of their accomplishments. The team this year was led by senior co-captains Kathleen Kennerley and Kendall Carlson who did a great job keeping the team unified and focused. Kendall and Kathleen both made the Bay State League All-Star Team. In addition, Kendall led the team in scoring, averaging 14 points per game and ending her career at Weymouth with a total of 827 points. Kathleen, Kendall and Lauren McGrath led in rebounding and Lindsay Hay, Chanel Singleteary, Jessica Peruzzi, Jessica Stuart, and Kathlyn Bongarzone contributed off the bench. Katie Corey, Katie Maci, Shannon Monahan and Jessica Coyle also enhanced the team's record.

Steve wins it for Weymouth!

The Boys' Winter Track Team had one of its best seasons in years with the help of strong seniors and talented junior and sophomore members. Team captain Jimmy Mwangi advanced to the All-New England Meet for the second straight year, breaking the school record in the 600-meter run and participating on the 4 by 4 relay team along with juniors Alex Bober and Derek Deady, and senior Torin Herring. Both Bober and Deady advanced to the All-State Meet at the Reggie Lewis Center in the 600-meter run and 300-meter run, respectively. Torin Herring cut over twenty seconds off his 1000-meter time to advance to All-State Meet, along with sophomore Mark Jordan. Herring did well and as the team's most improved runner, advanced to All-States. In Class A competition, junior milers Sean Coleran and Joe Ruvido both ran their personal bests with times of 4:43 and 4:44, respectively. Seniors Cole Burton and Billy MacDonald also added to the strong Weymouth showing with Cole earning his best time in the 600-meter run at 2:31 and MacDonald running the mile time in of 4:53. Another school record was broken later in the year by senior Ray Fuschetti, as his shot put toss put him into Class A competition. Senior shot putter and captain Andrew Bruce also improved the team in the shot put with the help of junior Mike Hardy. Besides the team's number of Class A competitors, eleven in total, the team beat league rival Brookline for the first time in over ten years, claiming second place in the Bay State League.

The WHS Girls' Winter Track team continued its success this winter, posting a strong 2-2-1 record in a tough Bay State Conference. The girls were led by senior captains Alyce Jordan, Lauren Pasquale, and Maureen Jones. A standout performer for the girls was captain and team MVP, Becca MacDonald, who, with a time of 5:12, placed third in the mile at the state championship meet. Other runners who qualified for the state meet were Nicole Pearce and Kristen Mahoney in the two mile, Sam Sacchetti in the 1000 meter, Jillian Fitzgerald in the 600 meter, Alex Murphy, Jess Chiuve, and Kerri Flaherty in the 300 meter, and the 4x800 meter and 4x400 meter relay teams.

Captains: Matt Swirbalus, Tyler Reeves, Pat Kennedy.

The WHS Hockey Team started out slowly this year, facing tough competition and winning only one of their first five games. Those four losses were to Duxbury (Division One Champions), Hingham (Super 8 qualifier), and Milton and Needham, both of whom were Division One South sectional semi-finalists. However, this very tough Independent and Bay State League schedule enabled the team to raise their level of play and build upon their experiences to end the season 10-4-3 and qualify for the state tournament. The team advanced to the second round of the tournament on an overtime goal by captain Matt Swirbalus in a 3-2 victory over Barnstable. The team's overall success was due to the leadership of the senior captains, Pat Kennedy (Second Team All-star), Tyler Reeves, and Matt Swirbalus, along with contributions from Karl Polis, Sam Tucci, Beaver Barone, Kyle Cazeault, Brian Corcoran, Bob Wright and JB O'Leary. The team was also bolstered by the goal tending of senior Bucky Bertoni, the skills of Second Team Bay State League All-stars, Connor Keefe and Ben Zerfoss, and the surprising play of sophomore Mike Tuplin and freshman Liam Harrington. On offense, underclassmen Mike Wilson, Ryan Bristol, Sean Foley, Paul Carthas and Anthony Dalesandro provided the scoring punch.

Taylor prepares for a leap.

The Wildcats finished their winning season with a 7-4 record. The girls were able to fight through injuries and pull together to show everyone just how much depth this team had. Seniors Alison Cronin, Cassie Carlson, Lauren Crombie, and Colleen MacNeil will be a tough act to follow, since their leadership will be difficult to emulate and their scores will be difficult to equal. This talent-filled team boasted three Bay State League All-stars: Cassie Carlson on balance beam, Jenn Lamm on balance beam and in floor exercise, and Casey Quinn for uneven parallel bars and in the all-around. Also, Casey and Jenn finished a stellar season by qualifying for the MIAA State Individual Championships, both in the all-around.

This past season for the Girls' Lacrosse Team was filled with both victories and losses, but most of all it was full of high spirits and great attitude. Tapping into this energy, the team opened the door for upcoming seasons. Great talent and unique coaching helped lead the way to a successful season. Next year the team hopes to recapture the great teamwork and unity of past seasons. The team is looking forward to underclassmen who will continue to exhibit the kind of leadership that has been displayed by seniors in the past, both on and off the field.

In Coach Dolan's first season as head coach, a young Wildcat team battled to a 6-14 record. The season was not great for the team, but it provided a learning experience for the first-season coach and his returning seniors to apply in the upcoming season. The team struggled to earn each one of its six wins.

One highlight of the season was sweeping the series against archrival Braintree. Steve Burke '04 led the Bay State League with a .444 average and, along with pitcher Brian Schilling '04, was named a Bay State League First-Team All-Star.

The 2005 season looks bright for Coach Dolan with his 10 returning players, led by Captains Doug Melanson and Pat Kennedy. Melanson will be the ace of the staff and play first base when he is not pitching. All the players look to contribute to returning the team to the winning ways of two years ago, when they made it to the tournament only to be eliminated by league powerhouse Xaverian.

The Wildcat Softball Team surprised many teams in the 2004 season. Having lost 11 players from the previous season and starting mostly underclassmen, the Lady Cats ended with a record of 7-11.

The team looks to improve in 2005 when it will be led by captains Jess Coyle, Meghan Morris, and Katie Corey. Returning varsity players, Jess Dion, Kelly Morris, Jess Gills, Britney Karr, Lauren Anderson, Jess Canavan, Amanda Pettograsso, and a strong JV squad hope to contribute to a winning season.

The Seniors

The Boys' Spring Track Team had a 2004 season that was long but full of excitement. The boys finished with a strong 4-2 record in the competitive Carey Division of the Bay State League, and achieved a cross-divisional win over Milton. A core group of the Class of 2005 helped with the team's success, including Chris Lewis in the mile and two mile, Cole Burton in the 400 meters, Bruno Silva in the hurdles, Hayes Gatie in the discus and Andrew Bruce, Tom Alexander, and Ray Fuschetti in the shot put.

The most stellar performance, though, was turned in by Jimmy Mwangi, who yet again proved that he is one of the elite runners of this state, finishing fourth at the Class A State Meet. Also qualifying for the Class A meet was Weymouth's 4x800 relay team made up of Mark Jordan, Sean Coleran, Joe Ruvido and Jimmy Mwangi.

Girls' Spring Track

Carissa runs to the finish line.

Lauren talks to Coach Collins.

Track is a sport which allows athletes the opportunity to build their speed, strength, and endurance, but to do that athletes have to work hard every day at practice to maximize the effects of the training. For those athletes who commit themselves to daily training and competitions, the rewards will carry over to other sports and will result in a new sense of accomplishment. Track allows everyone to participate, set personal goals, and reach those goals. There are no cuts; no one sits on the bench.

A new track facility should go a long way towards making the Girls' Spring Track Team more competitive within the Bay State League and in competition in Eastern Massachusetts. This new track facility will give the girls a great opportunity to do specific workouts designed to raise their fitness. The new track should provide an exciting opportunity for all girls who want to get on board with a program and a sport that should be experiencing more success this spring.

The 2005 team will be led by senior captains Lauren Crombie, Maureen Jones, and Alyce Jordan. With a large number of last year's younger athletes rejoining the team, the runners hope to build on their success of last season.

"Tennis. It's what I do." - Tesh Patel

"This year we look to try to win the BSC for the first time in many years." - Corey Ledin

The Weymouth Boys' Tennis Team is coming back with some raw talent this year. Captains Corey Ledin, Tesh Patel, and Tyler Reeves are at the helm of this young tennis team. Coach Contrino will work to rebuild this year after losing Bay State League All-star Kevin Grammer, as well as Jim McIssac and Scott Hudson-Bryant. This year's team will battle it out again for the BSC title.

The Girls' Tennis Team has experienced much success competing in the Bay State League, one of the top tennis leagues in the state. In two of the last three years, Weymouth has qualified for the State Tournament. They hope to continue their winning ways in 2005. Captains Emily Picciotto and Michelle Frawley will provide the leadership, along with seniors Julia Muller, Ashley Losi, Julie Hubbard, and Vanessa Pompeo. Being a memeber of this team is special in many ways, but especially because the girls really know what it means to be a team.

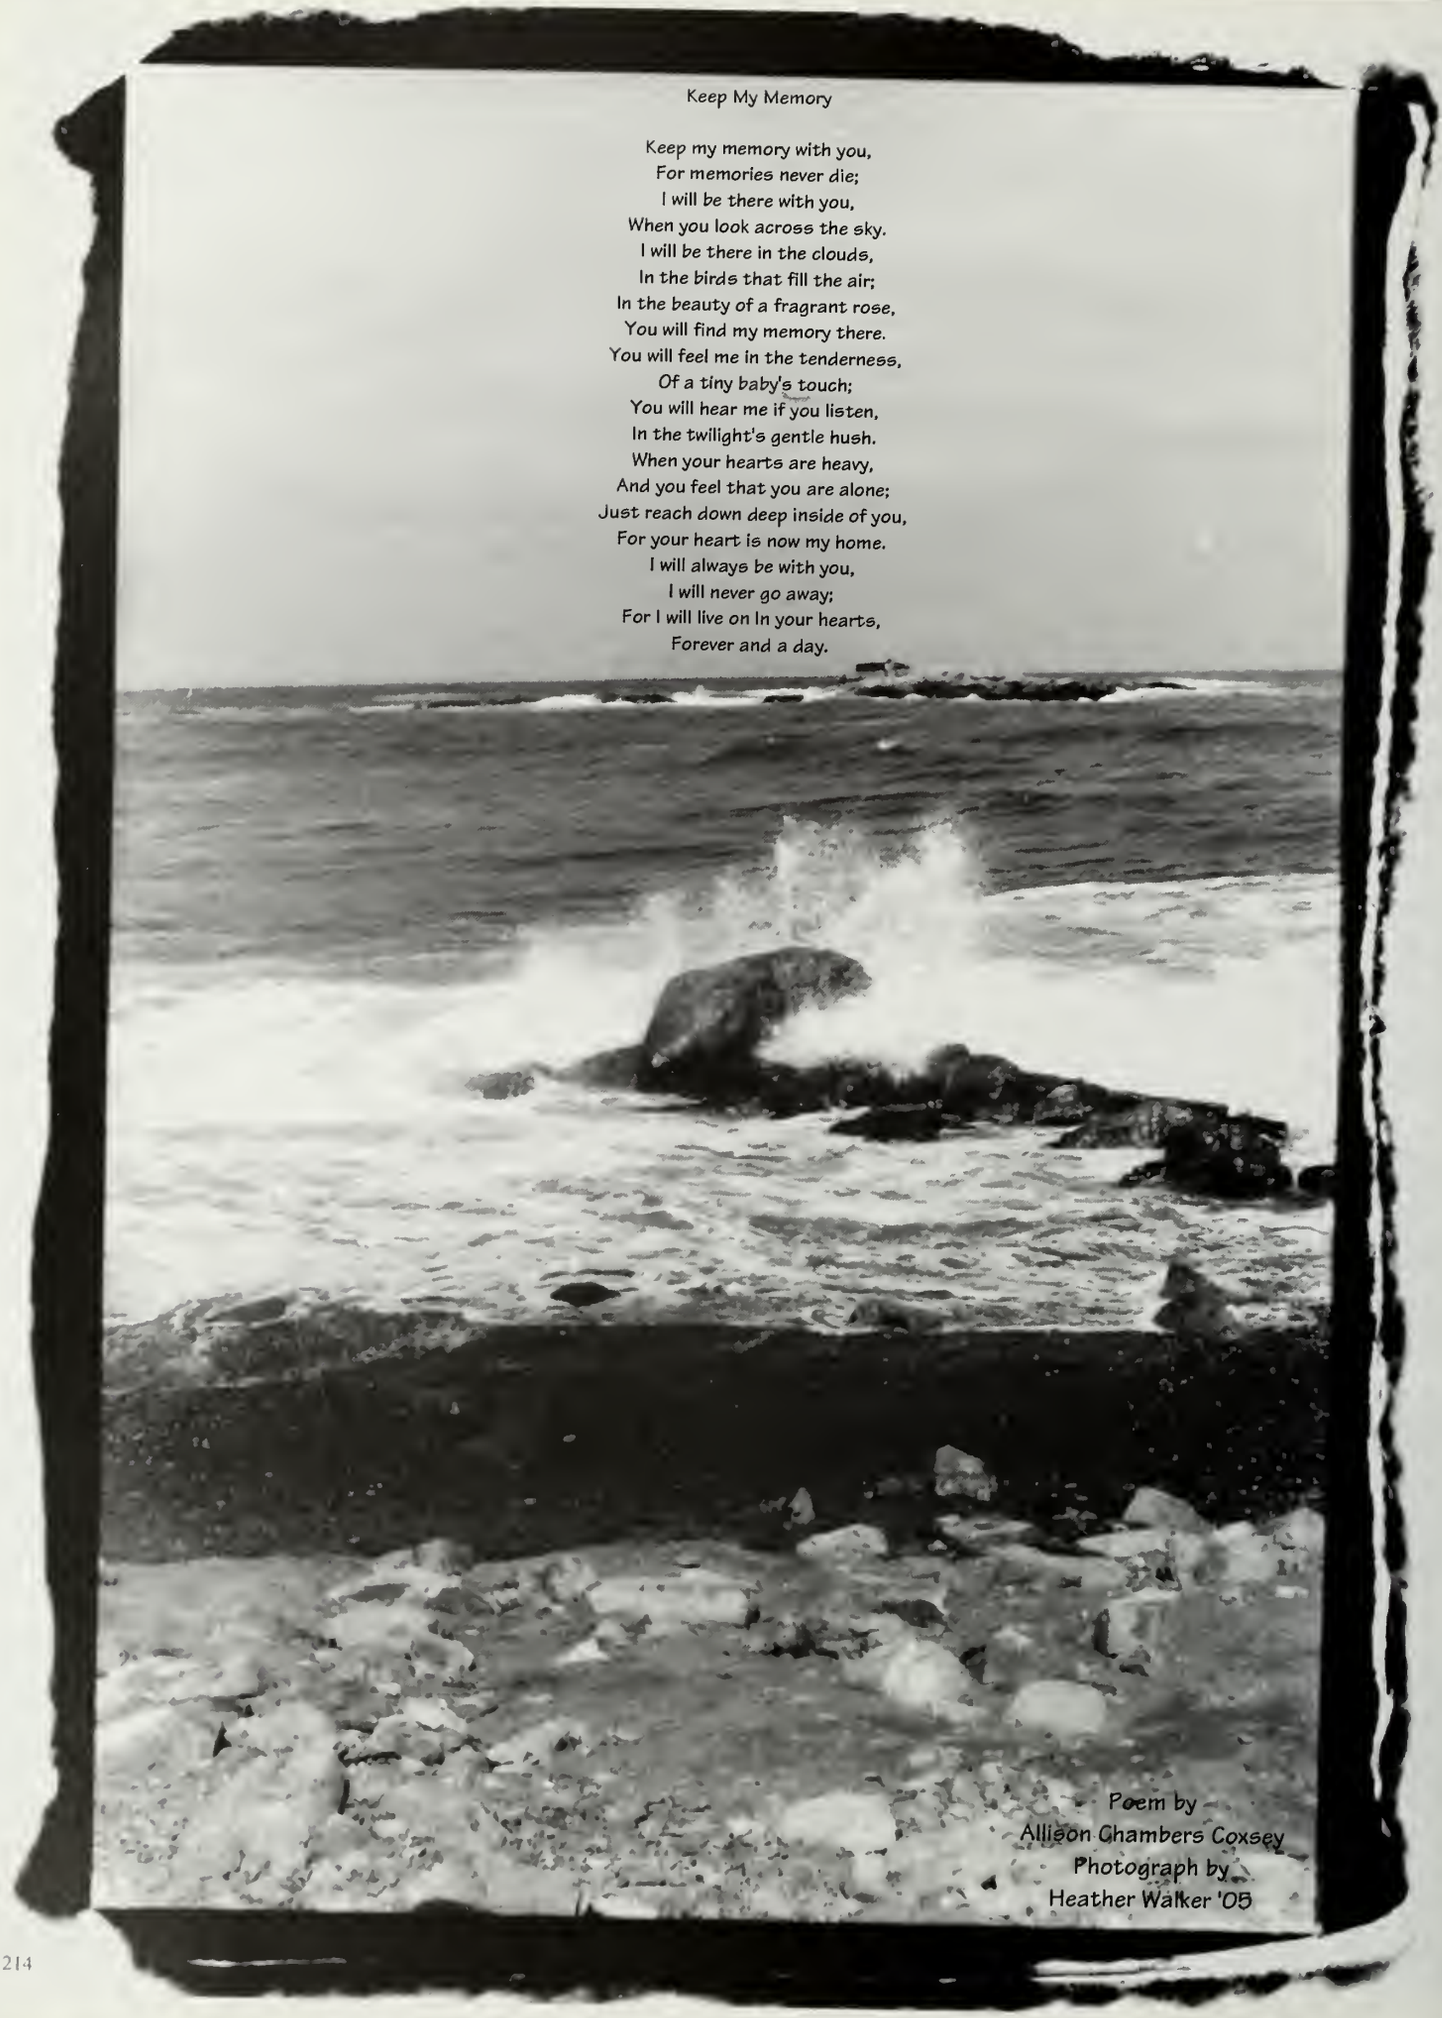
The Way We Were

Keep My Memory

Keep my memory with you,
For memories never die;
I will be there with you,
When you look across the sky.
I will be there in the clouds,
In the birds that fill the air;
In the beauty of a fragrant rose,
You will find my memory there.
You will feel me in the tenderness,
Of a tiny baby's touch;
You will hear me if you listen,
In the twilight's gentle hush.
When your hearts are heavy,
And you feel that you are alone;
Just reach down deep inside of you,
For your heart is now my home.
I will always be with you,
I will never go away;
For I will live on In your hearts,
Forever and a day.



Poem by
Allison Chambers Coxsey

To all my classmates and friends,

If I had a star for every time you made me smile,
I'd be holding the entire galaxy in my hands.
Love always and forever,
Jenelle

Jenelle,

You were always more than just a friend to everyone you met. You showed compassion for everyone you talked to. You showed enthusiasm for every activity you ever did. And, most importantly, you showed love for all your friends and acquaintances. To everyone you were a good friend, but to me you were a sister.

Love always,

Joe Glynn

Jenelle,

Hey, girl! I miss you. I hope you will be with us at the prom and graduation. I am sure you will be. You've touched many hearts, especially mine. There's not a day when I don't think of you. Hope to see you in paradise someday!

Love always,

Marie Derbes

Amanda Pettograsso

Amanda,

Parents hold their child's hand for a short while, but their heart forever. It seems like yesterday you were a baby in our arms. Then you started school and you thought you knew it all, and over time you realized there was so much you had to learn. Now you're graduating. We are proud of you and all your accomplishments. No matter what choices you make, your family will always be there to support you.

Love always,
Mom, Dad, and Carla

Carolynn Blanchard

Carolynn,

I can't believe how fast time has flown by. You have grown into a lovely young woman. Even as a toddler, you were always willing to lend a hand. Today you continue to have that same wonderful quality, and that is what makes you so special! You have worked incredibly hard and have overcome every obstacle. Dad and I couldn't be more proud of you. We wish you all the best as you begin your new life as a college student.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Jen, Mike, and Kevin

Jennifer Neiters

Jenabear,
As we look back on your life, we see a fun- loving, happy, and such an animated little girl, and we wonder, "Where did she go?", only to realize our little girl is still with us. But, she has become a stunning and intel-ligent young lady, ready for college and to make a difference in the world. You are so special to us and we are very proud of you. We love you "this big much"!!!
Love,
Momma, Stephanie, Nana, Papa, and all your your aunts, uncles, and cousins

Joey Welch

Joey,

We can't believe how the years have flown by. It seems like only yesterday that you were born. We have many memories that will last a lifetime.

How many times have we told you that you were the light at the end of the tunnel? Tim would be so proud.

We are very proud of you. Reach for the stars.

Congratulations!!!! We love you!!!

Love,
Dad, Mom, and Matt

Laura Bradford
